

Santa Clara County Library District Invites applications for: EXTRA HELP LIBRARIAN

Come work for us!

The Santa Clara County Library District is hiring several Extra Help librarians to work in our system of seven community and one branch libraries, and in the Bookmobile Department.

Description: This is a great way to get your foot in the door for a career in librarianship, expand your professional network by working in different locations serving diverse communities, and be part of a 4-star, nationally-recognized library system in the heart of Silicon Valley.

Typical tasks include:

- Responding to patrons' reference questions
- Helping patrons locate specific information
- Offering reader advisory services
- Using the library's catalog, core library databases, and internet search engines
- Performing basic troubleshooting of technical problems

Requirement: Possession of a Master's Degree in Library Science, or its recognized equivalent, from a school accredited by the American Library Association.
